Each design on the printable crush blog is hand lettered or hand drawn by me, so you know you'll get a unique and high quality cut file to use with your Cricut or Silhouette Machine.

I've included a list of tutorials in case you're new at this! If you're a follower of Printable Crush, you know I'm TeamCricut, but I have also included some links to some blogs with plenty of fabulous Silhouette Tutorials, as well.
